

Portable Power Distribution

Temporary power built around your application

Atlas portable transformer skids provide temporary power distribution for construction sites and outdoor events. Configure the skid to suit your power and connection requirements.

Standard features

- 45 to 500 kVA transformer configurations
- Four-wheel frames available up to 150 kVA
- Heavy-duty swivel casters on wheeled models
- Four-way forklift pockets and four lifting eyes
- Stackable frames and tool basket: 45 to 150 kVA
- Polyester powder-coat finish
- Primary and secondary protection
- NEMA Type 3R outdoor construction
- UL 1640 configurations up to 300 kVA
- 16 Series Cam Lok input and output

Optional features

- Multiple voltage configurations
- Shielded isolation transformers
- Step-up or step-down transformers
- Ground/neutral bonding switch on certain models
- Secondary load center and receptacle configurations

Atlas product photograph

Features vary by model. Confirm the selected configuration and ratings with Atlas when requesting a quote.